

St. Henry Redskins – NFL Players

Jim Lachey (born June 4, 1963 in St. Henry, Ohio) is a former NFL offensive tackle who played for ten seasons with the San Diego Chargers, Los Angeles Raiders and the Washington Redskins from 1985 to 1995.

Lachey played college football at Ohio State University and was a three time Pro Bowl player in 1987 with the Chargers, and 1990 and 1991 with the Redskins as a member of "The Hogs." He helped the Redskins win Super Bowl XXVI. Lachey currently is a radio broadcaster for Ohio State University Football games.

Jeffrey Hartings (born September 9, 1972 in St. Henry, Ohio) is a former professional NFL center who is best known for his six-season tenure with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Hartings attended St. Henry High School in St. Henry, Ohio where he was a two-time All-Conference selection, helped lead his team to the state championship as a senior, and finished his defensive career with 23 sacks and 200 tackles.

Hartings attended Penn State University, where he was a two-time All-American in 1994 and 1995 and was twice named Academic All-American. He was a first round draft (#23 overall) of the Detroit Lions in the 1996 NFL Draft. He signed with the Steelers as a free agent in 2001, where he moved from right guard to center. Hartings was an integral part of the 2005-06 Pittsburgh Super Bowl XI team. He has been selected to represent the AFC at the Pro Bowl twice (after the 2004 and 2005 seasons). Jeff retired from the Steelers and the NFL after the 2006 season.

Robert "Bobby" Hoying (born September 20, 1972 in St. Henry, Ohio) attended St. Henry High School, where he helped to win a football and two basketball state championships.

Hoying played college football with the Ohio State Buckeyes. In 1993, he was named the Ohio State starting quarterback, and by 1994, Hoying acquired firm hold on the starting spot. In his career at Ohio State, Hoying completed 498 passes and 57 touchdown passes, both school records. He was an outstanding college student and was selected as an All Big 10 Scholar Athlete. Hoying was selected to the Ohio State Football All-Century Team in 2000.

Hoying was selected in the third round of the 1996 NFL draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. He played with the Eagles til 2000 when he was traded to the Oakland Raiders. Hoying retired after the 2001 season following a elbow injury.

